

Need even more reason to attend SOCAP Symposium 2017?

If you need even more information for your business case for your Symposium attendance, here's 10 reasons why attending the SOCAP Symposium 2017 represents good value for you, and your organisation.

1. SOCAP Symposium is the longest running and leading consumer affairs and complaints handling conference in Australia.
2. SOCAP Symposium is an intensive professional development program for the complaints handling, customer care and consumer affairs profession.
3. Attendance earns 40 credit points towards national SOCAP Complaints Professional Certification.
4. Professional development includes 18 + planned sessions with 25 speakers across three days including keynote presentations, industry leaders, regulators and more.
5. Activity sessions with more than 200 complaints handlers and consumer affairs, customer care professionals and regulators to build your professional networks.
6. Interactive learning sessions with all delegates including an Ethics Hypothetical and an open industry panel.
7. Best practice case studies from some of Australia's leading companies and you will be able to implement your learnings back into your organisation to foster wider professional development across your business.
8. Plus, you receive value for money through purchasing a Super Early Bird (before 19 Feb 2017) or Early Bird ticket before July 1, and save more than $500 off the registration price.
9. Delegates can also receive special accommodation rates at Hilton Sydney if you book early. (Prices subject to availability)
10. You can nominate for the prestigious SOCAP Industry Awards, announced during the Gala Dinner and Industry Awards night on Thursday 24 August 2017.