

talking to customers

Talking to customers about complaints

Customers want to know that something happened because of their complaint. Make sure you respond quickly and build a great experience when customers complain.

Top 4 customer expectations when making a complaint:

- The complaint will be dealt with quickly
- It will be taken seriously
- The other person will respond with empathy
- There will be an apology